Our UU Ideas

Wednesday 9/13 and 9/27

1-2:30 pm in the FPUU Library

Ideas are the "rocks" of our religion. They are our U.U. bedrock and also the bedcover. They are what we have. Some of our ideas come from thoughts, some from the senses, some from emotions and some from intuitions. It is important we groom them and what better way than in the company of one another in the sanctuary of our library? Join us on Wednesday 9/13 at 1pm in the Library. Light rules of discussion will guide an even flow of ideas. for more information speak with Helen Rivas-Rose.

Hurricane Harvey Relief

If you are planning to donate money to Harvey relief please consider doing so through the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee and the UUA.

Together these organizations focus on helping the most marginalized people such as undocumented workers and the LGBTQ community.

In addition, they will be helping UU congregations affected by the storm.

The Shared Pulpit – Fall 2017

Do you have something inside you that you yearn to share with others? Are you, or have you ever thought about becoming a Worship Associate? Do you want to support your congregation in their spiritual development? This workshop is based on Erika Hewitt's book, entitled, The Shared Pulpit. The introduction to Erika Hewitt's book reads, in part, "Using a series of small group meetings, this program aims to deepen connection and trust...it contains advice, tools and a process designed to equip you to be even more skilled, confident leaders (because anyone courageous and curious enough to share their journey publicly with their congregation is, in fact, a leader). Along the way, you'll discover your authentic voice by writing a sermon to deliver to the congregation." This workshop will be facilitated by Rev. Lara Campbell.

Please contact Sally Keene, sjpk@roadrunner.com if you are interested and tell her what days/times work best for you. We will attempt to schedule the workshop at a time that fits the majority interested.

If you are willing to help with the refreshments for Gwen Vesenka's Memorial service on 9/24 please see Ann Livermore.

Social Justice: New Meeting Time

The Social Justice Committee already is planning action for the coming church year. We have added a new meeting time, so that we can include people who are interested but who are not available during the day. In Sept. we will meet on Thursday, Sept. 7, at 11 a.m. in the church library (our usual meeting time) and on Wednesday, Sept. 20, we will have our first evening meeting at 7 p.m. in the parlor. Our meetings will continue on Thursday mornings and Wed. evenings, but not necessarily first and third weeks of the month. We have grappled with several issues: prison injustice, racial injustice, the gap between the rich and poor, health care, and climate change. Come help us decide on our focus or actions for this year.

Caring for our neighbors

Our collection of toiletries for the needy will continue this fall.

Look for the bin in the Parish Hall. Ginny DiMarco and Arlene Horn will deliver our gifts to the Sanford UU Church, which distributes them.

Thank you for your generosity!

TRUE REFUGE and INSIGHT DIALOGUE MEDITATION
A Day of Relational Meditation Practice

Saturday September 23, 9am-3pm First Parish Unitarian Universalist Church 114 Main Street, Kennebunk Maine

With Jan Surrey (Buddhist teacher & psychologist) and Jaylene Summers (Insight Dialogue facilitator & psychologist).

At this Insight Dialogue daylong retreat, we will take refuge in awareness, wisdom and spiritual friendship (Buddha, Dharma and Sangha) as sources of wise relationship and compassionate action in these turbulent, challenging times.

INSIGHT DIALOGUE MEDITATION is fully engaged meditation, practiced in dyads and small groups. Six guidelines are followed that support this process; pause, relax, open, trust emergence, listen deeply, and speak the truth. Our lives are lived in relationship and we can bring greater ease, freedom and benefit to others and ourselves through this relational meditation practice.

For more information on Insight Dialogue Meditation please visit metta.org.

The retreat is suitable for beginners as well as experienced practitioners.

Please bring a lunch. Teas, water and fruit are provided. $20 suggested donation.
