Weekly Update

Amy Wood's Service January 6, 2019

Amy Wood is Co-Chair of the First Parish Board of Directors. As a psychologist, coach, professor, and speaker, she has spent over 20 years leading ambitious adults to greater fulfillment and achievement. Amy will be speaking Sunday January 6, 2019 on embracing the mysteries of life

INSIGHT DIALOGUE-SATURDAY MEDITATION

"Ask yourself, - how can I be part of a realm of giving"? ~ Ajahn Sucitto

We will be meeting Next Year on Saturday January 5, 2019, from 9:30-11:30am in the Parlor to practice Insight Dialogue Meditation. We will also meet on Saturdays Feb 2 and Mar 16. ALL are welcome. If you are new to the practice, please contact me for some guidance before attending. Thank you, Jaylene Summers, jsummers@roadrunner.com or 207-985-7412.

Women For All Seasons

Women for All Seasons will meet in the church library on TUESDAY, January 8 at 6:30 PM. All women are welcome to join this circle to celebrate, connect, create and share ritual (and food). For more information about this group, please check out the brochure in the rack near the back entrance of the church.

For our first gathering of 2019 we will use the Soulflower Plant, Spirit Oracle Deck, to connect to our inner wisdom with loving support from the plant spirits. We will set some intentions for the year ahead, and end with a fun coloring activity using the art from the Soulflower deck. All supplies will be provided, but to make sure that we have enough supplies for all, please send an email to Sheila at shlittlefield@gmail.com or leave a message at 985-3988 to let us know that you are coming.

16TH Annual MLK Breakfast celebration features chaplain from Cumberland County Jail

Kennebunk—The Rev. Jeffrey M. McIlwain, Pastor of the North Star AME Zion Church, Newington, NH, and Chaplain of the Cumberland County Jail, will give the keynote talk at this year's breakfast honoring the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The event will take place on the holiday, Jan. 21 at 9 a.m. at First Parish Unitarian Universalist Church, 114 Main St., Kennebunk.

During his talk, Rev. McIlwain will draw on his 22 years of experience at the jail and his concerns about injustice. The audience will also hear him play bass and sing with the North Star Gospel Jazz Ensemble. Rev. Jeff entered the ministry in 1992, when he served as Associate Minister at Green Memorial AME Zion Church in Portland, his home church. He volunteered at the jail for four years before becoming Chaplain in 2001. As Chaplain, he oversees 50 religious volunteers and ministers to the needs of the corrections staff, as well as the inmates.

A breakfast including quiche, sausages, blueberry buckle, fruit, and coffee will be served in the Parish Hall at 9 a.m. The program will follow at about 9:45 in the upstairs Sanctuary. Entrance is through the side door of the church, which will open at 8:30. A chair lift is available.

Tickets for the breakfast and program are $15 for adults and $5 for students. Tickets for just the program are $10 for adults, free for students. They will be available on-line at www.uukennebunk.org. To pay by check, call 207 985-1411.

Thinking about being a legal member of First Parish?

Rev. Lara is scheduling a New Member Ceremony for 1/27/19. Talk to her about signing the book so you can be part of the ceremony.

Expectations of Membership

First Parish is committed to offering Members enriching worship services, opportunities for personal faith development and religious education, an open and welcoming environment, caring support and outreach.

First Parish asks for the following commitments from its members:

Attendance at Worship Services

By attending as regularly as possible, a Member will become a familiar face in the FIRST PARISH community network, contributing to their own personal faith development.

Service to the Life of the Church

The volunteer efforts of members keep FIRST PARISH running, and there are many opportunities to get involved: volunteering in the nursery once a month, helping with RE classes, assisting at the monthly Church clean up, volunteering in the office, helping prepare/serve at coffee hour, or serving on one of the many committees that need creative thinkers. The Membership Committee may be contacted for a list of volunteers needed.

Service to the Larger Community

First Parish prides itself on working for the greater good of the community. FIRST PARISH puts its faith into action by participating in programs that benefit those outside of our congregation, regardless of faith and beliefs. By taking an active role in programs such as Focus on Hunger, as well as other social justice groups, First Parish is able to make a positive impact on society at different levels. In addition to providing awareness of local, national, and global issues, FIRST PARISH encourages its Members to participate in and bring awareness to programs about which they feel passionate. First Parish recognizes that every individual can make a difference.

Financial Contribution

As a self-sustaining congregation, First Parish does not receive financial support from the UUA or any other governing body. We depend solely on the financial generosity of our members and friends. Since each family's financial situation is unique, Members and Friends are asked to pledge, as able, a percentage of their adjusted gross income for each full calendar year. This is our fair share level of giving. To us, true stewardship means the responsible maintenance of a self-sustaining community.

Buddhist Book Discussion Group

“The Buddha’s teachings on cultivating the Boundless Heart are Relational Qualities...that lead to awakening and freedom”. - Christina Feldman

This monthly group meets Tuesdays from 3-4:30pm in the library. Upcoming Meetings are: January 22 and February 12th. Currently we are reading together and discussing "Boundless Heart: The Buddha's Path of Kindness, Compassion, Joy and Equanimity" by Christina Feldman.

We are an evolving group, co-creating this sacred space. Please Join Us. ALL are Welcome. FMI please contact Jaylene Summers; jsummers@roadrunner.com or 207-985-7412. Thank you.

Happy Birthday to Us!

Please join us for the All-Church Birthday Party!
February 3 during Coffee Hour
Join others who share your birthday month for yummy cake and fellowship.

Cakes needed--if you would like to bake/provide a cake, please sign up on the signup sheet in the parish hall, or contact Kim Lord at kimlord1@aol.com or 646-7925.

Items needed for Archives

Wanted: Any usable album sheet protectors or empty scrap book type albums. These are for the archives. There are many news clippings and photos that are currently not very well protected. If you gave up on Creative Memories after your fifth grandbaby and are looking for a worthy place for the materials, please contact Karen Tolstrup or leave a note in my box in the office. Thanks

From the Archives

January 2019

Happy New Year! This month I am giving a few short entries found in the regular newsletter that Rev. Peter Richardson produced. They give a sense of what was going on in our church in the 1970's and early 80's. They sound like much of what is still going on here in the 21st Century.

Who remembers?

November 1977: Perhaps an outcome of the appearance of R. Buckminster Fuller at FPUU, there was a Home Energy Conservation Seminar, led by Peter Ashley and others. Even back then, there were a dozen solar houses and some wind-powered ones owned by members of the congregation. A solar energy fair was held in May 1978 and on Earth Day 1990, there was a special worship service followed by participation in a large Earth Day celebration at Laudholm Farm.

On May 2, 1980 the Nguyen family, Huy, his wife Nga and three children arrived in Portland to begin their new lives in Kennebunk. Their youngest child had been born on a rickety boat on the way from Vietnam and Hong Kong. The church had committed to sponsoring the family. Many members of the congregation participated including Al and Vicki Adams, the Chewnings and Betty and Morty Joyce. The hard-working family eventually was able to open the Mei Le Wah restaurant, and their daughter My Ha went to Vassar. For several years the Church celebrated Yuan Tan (New Year) every February.

In March 1982, Bruce and Paula Wheeler brought a videotape of Helen Caldicott, a famous advocate of banning all nuclear weapons to church. At about the same time, Al Adams brought his strong desire to organize a peace movement to the church. This led to the formation of the Kennebunk Forum. The church hosted a World Peace March led by Buddhist monks, organized letter writing campaigns and very soon was the county-wide center for all anti-nuclear activities. In 1985 they organized a huge Walk for Peace to the Bush estate on Hiroshima Day. At its peak there were over 250 members on the mailing list.

In March 1987, Carolyn McAdams created and oversaw a Fiesta de Armistad. There was a dinner and speeches all aimed at informing the membership of the various problems for people in El Salvador, Nicaragua, Guatemala, and Panama.

As you can see, we've always been an activist church and many of the people who participated in these activities are still around. Ask them about those times, sometime.

Caring Committee

The Caring Committee of the church has set up a program for church members and friends. The program provides transportation to medical appointments and to church services. Beth Andersen and Kathe Wright are co-coordinating these rides. We need more drivers for this service. If you can volunteer to provide these rides, contact Beth Andersen at 985-7218.

People requesting rides to medical appointments or to Sunday services should call Reverend Lara at 337-5643 or Andrea Rohde at 985-3517 during Reverend Lara's Sabbatical. Reverend Lara or Andrea will contact either Kathe or Beth to make arrangements with volunteers for rides.

Sermons Can Be Found On-Line

You can listen to past sermons online! Go to uukennebunk.org, click on the 3rd box on the left side "Latest Sermon: Audio" or if you want to check the archives " View all sermons in our archive" So... if you missed a week or want to hear a particular sermon again you can!

Caring for our neighbors

Our collection of toiletries for the needy will continue as the year goes on. Look for the bin in the Parish Hall. Ginny DiMarco and Arlene Horn will deliver our gifts to the Sanford UU Church, which distributes them. Thank you for your generosity!

Do you Need A Copy Of The Newsletter?

Paper copies of the current Church Newsletter are available for those who do not use email. They may be found on the Welcome Table in the Parish Hall. They are also available by mail. Please contact Crystal Jones, Office Administrator, to be put on the list.

Funding Opportunities!

ClynK Bottle Redemption

What is that sound you hear early Sunday mornings in the back hall? And ever wonder why you see members carrying wine bottles around?

FPUU not only recycles, but we turn in "Maine labeled" bottles and cans for money.

We have a Clynk deposit barrel in the kitchen. If you have more than you can carry, take home your very own green bag. The new Clynk bags are in the black filing cabinet to the right of the stage behind the back curtain.

Here is the Clynk website for more information: <https://www.clynk.com>

Do you shop at Hannaford?

Easy Fundraiser!

For every $1000 our community spends, Hannaford will award our church $50! If you shop at Hannaford, even a small amount, consider participating in this easy fundraiser.

Here's what you need to do...

If you are NEW to the program - Leave a check, made out to "FPUU" in the amount of $5- 450, with "Hannaford" on the memo line, in the locked box of the church office door. We will leave a blank Hannaford gift card for you at the church.

To ADD money to your card - Leave a check, made out to "FPUU" in the amount of $5- 450, with the four digit "PIN" from the back of your Hannaford Gift Card, on the memo line, in the locked box of the church office door.

If the total order amount is at least $1000 we will send you an email telling you when the money will be credited to your card.

Deadline to submit checks: Monday evenings by 5 pm.

Email FPUUHannaford@gmail.com if you have questions. Thanks! Rev. Lara, Eva and Myrna
