Attention Blueberry Fair Bakers

Susan Jack will be at the church on Friday June 23rd from 4-6PM to receive your pies and buckles/coffee cakes. If that won't work with your schedule please bring them on Saturday morning. Thank you for baking!

How To Avoid Robocalls

Annoying, aren't they? Well, here is a helpful tip to reduce those interruptions.

Call, text or email Andrea Rohde to let her know how many pies and/or buckles you will be making for the fair. See contact information in the next news item.

Let them eat cake!

Let them eat blueberry pie and buckle!

Yes, we are having the Blueberry Fair on July 24th. It will be a live event and we need real pies and buckles to sell, no muffins this year.

There will not be a luncheon so we don't have a required number of pies to solicit, no need for anyone to purchase pies at a bakery. However we do want to have lots of pies and buckles to sell outside throughout the day.

Please email, text, or call Andrea Rohde if you are willing to make pie(s) or buckle(s).
andrea.rohde49@gmail.com. cell - 207-468-2955, landline - 985-3517

Optional recipes are attached to eblast.

Three baking fireflies will be premaking and baking 35 pies for an online sale coming soon. Those will be picked up the day of the fair. They are separate from the pies and buckles we need for the table on fair day.

If you are unable to bake consider buying a pie from the online sale or making a monetary donation to FPUU to help defray the cost of supplies for the online sale. Please put Blueberry Fair Pies in the subject line.

Thank you so very much.

One of Our Very Own Talented Members!

The Village JULY 2021

A SERIES ON LOCAL ARTISTS by John Forssen

'Out 'n About', Inspiration is Everywhere

He won his first blue ribbon as a schoolboy, a rendering of 'Downhill Skiers'.

As artist Bob Lown tells the story, his first brush with artistic education was tentative at best...a classroom radio broadcast featuring "canned" lessons and very little in the way of instruction or inspiration. The subsequent arrival of a new teacher, who turned off the radio and exposed her students to the drawings of Leonardo DaVinci, created the jolt which led to the blue ribbon (won in a statewide competition) and a life-long engagement in artistic endeavor.

Retired now, Bob is a Harvard graduate (government and business) and spent much of his working life managing a company which manufactured hydraulic presses. "Huge machines," he says with a smile, a dramatic contrast to the delicacy of his paintings.

A member of the Art Guild of the Kennebunks since 2006 and, more recently, Maine Women in the Arts, Bob is a regular exhibitor in local shows, describing his work as "representational."

"I try to paint local buildings and landscapes in ways that give viewers a different way of looking at the things they may see every day... realistic, yes... but offering insights.

"You might say that I take the occasional liberty for the sake of rhythm, symmetry and emphasis."

The care he takes with his work is immediately apparent. The colors are rich and well-balanced and the lines are sharp, purposeful.

"Well over fifty-percent of the effort in my work is invested in the drawing, which means there's a lot of pencil, a lot of sketching, on the page before I'm even thinking about color. The form has to be there first."

So, of course, he has an idea of what the picture is going to look like long before he gets to the end.

"Yes," he says, "I always have something in mind."

For inspiration he simply gets 'out and about', allowing his surroundings to speak for themselves. "I bring a camera with me and when I find myself remarking, 'that would make a great painting,' I snap a picture to take back and use as a model."

In this year of isolation due to the pandemic, he has managed to complete 20 paintings. He has also taken to 'redoing' finished paintings. "You can do that sort of thing in the absence of deadlines," he says.

"I will put a finished painting out where I can study it and, after making a list of all the things I might have done differently, I start over...fresh paint and fresh ideas."

As for work habits, Bob says he paints regularly, but he's not pinned to a schedule. That said, however, he acknowledges that "there's always a painting in the works."

While many painters might dream of having a real studio, proper light and space enough to put their work 'at a distance' from time to time, Bob is content at his kitchen table...a small space, sure enough, but big enough to inspire great ideas.

WIONN (Welcoming Immigrants Our New neighbors) NEWS

WIONN is the recipient of this month's share the offering and will make excellent use of your donations. WIONN works hard to serve those trying to make their way as New Mainers.

MUUSAN NEWS

As you know, MUUSAN is our link to a statewide UU social and environmental justice advocacy initiative. One thing that has made a huge difference is the MUUSAN Legislative Liaisons. They represent most of the congregations and fellowships in Maine and act as a link between the work of MUUSAN and their congregations. They have a voluntary meeting for an hour once a week. First Parish does not have a liaison. I am hoping that someone will see the value in this role for both MUUSAN and First Parish and volunteer. Just get in touch with me and I will connect you and fill you in. marylyn.wentworth@tnsk.org

Zoom Buddhist Book Group

“The brahma viharas or ‘heavenly abodes’... of Kindness, Compassion, Joy and Equanimity, cultivated skillfully, are both pathways to profound liberation and the embodiment of awakening. ~ Christina Feldman

We are meeting on ZOOM on Tuesday, September 14th. Currently we are reading and practicing together Chapter 2, ‘Compassion’ from the beautiful book by Christina Feldman “Boundless Heart: The Buddha’s Path of Kindness, Compassion, Joy and Equanimity.”

It is not too late to join this reflective, gentle contemplative group. All are welcome. If you would like to attend, please let me know and I will send you an invite. Please shelter safely, be healthy and protected in the midst of this unprecedented time. Jaylene Summers: jaylenesummers@gmail.com or 207-985-7412.

Share the Offering Collection for June 2021

COS

We would like to thank the congregation for their contributions for Share the Offering for the month of June. As a congregation we raised $232.65 for COS.

Share the Offering for the Month of July and August

For the month of July and August our church Share the Offering will go to Welcome Immigrants Our New Neighbors (WIONN)

WIONN or Welcoming Immigrants our New Neighbors is a local, interfaith group that assists New Mainers in Biddeford and Saco. The intent of the group is to help families assimilate into their new culture by providing household goods, furniture, diapers, and most importantly friendship. Care Teams work closely with families as friends and neighbors. WIONN has several special funds that improve the lives of our new neighbors, including an education fund to help people attend college, a fund to assist with legal issues such as asylum, work permits, and citizenship, and a rent assistance to help with security deposits. For those of us in First Parish who are part of the Care Teams, we can attest to the value of WIONN and the satisfaction of being truly helpful to people we come to respect and love. There is always space for Care Teams if you are interested. Contact Marylyn.wentworth@tnsk.org for more information

Choir Notes

Submitted by Paul Beach

WHO DOES NOT LIKE POSITIVE EFFECTS?

Improved Mood;    Focused Attention;    Deep Breathing;    Social Support; Cognitive Stimulation;    Regular Commitment.

WOW: nice list. A good amount of recent research has studied the positive psychological benefits of choral singing in choirs. (See your friendly Google sites for more).

My first recollections of personal experience with music was as a small child, hearing my mom play the piano. I later came to realize that she was quite accomplished. All through teens and young adulthood I was privileged to sing in church choirs, HS chorus, college glee club and the serious, Capital University Chapel Choir, and even a go at musical theater in “The Fantasticks”.

During my second life, in Maine, being with Seaglass Chorale, Choral Art Society and over three decades of FPUU choirs has enriched these years. With choral groups, I have sung in St. Peter’s Basilica in the Vatican, the National Cathedral and numerous other moving and inspiring venues. It has been my honor to perform on stage at Merrill Auditorium numerous times with CAS and three times in the chorus in Port Opera productions. There was also the delight (and challenge) of having leads and chorus parts in the productions of various southern Maine community theaters.

Music, by now you may have noticed, is a thread connecting a number of gems of one modest life’s journey on this planet. Not just the notes, rhythms and lyrics, but the serial, serious, satisfying social broth that renders these activities deliciously and spiritually nourishing - and profoundly meaningful. This note is not meant to be a cheap, egotistical obituary (not that anyone would read it anyway). It is shared to make a point. Only recently has it become clear to some of us the benefits of choral singing. See above.

But here is the point, (I know, don’t start a sentence with “But”. Oh, well.) The point is that after all of those astounding times, experiences and events, none – that is, NONE – live up to the soul warming, heart feeling, mind soothing, social comfort and real joy of singing with the First Parish Unitarian Universalist Church of Kennebunk Choir, directed by Molly Petrik. Nothing surpasses sitting next to Bob Lown and the other bases, looking across to Eva Downs, glancing at Margaret and the sopranos hitting the high notes, watching the tenors and altos smile as they grab those harmonies, always welcoming and including experienced singers and beginners alike, enjoying all the others enjoying all the others.

Re-read the first line, above.

Come join us.

You’ll be glad you did.

SHARE THE OFFERING

Share the Offering has been enhanced by your Social Justice Committee and approved by your Board of Directors. This new and more consistent approach will enable us to actively express our Unitarian Universalist values, while reaching out to a larger community.

-HOW WILL THIS WORK? Each month a different and approved non-profit organization will receive one half of our regular Sunday cash collection.

-WILL WE SHARE EVERY SUNDAY FOR THE FULL MONTH? Yes, except that July & August will be combined to allow for summer time's lower attendance.

-WHY COLLECT EVERY SUNDAY? We recognize that not everyone can be in church each and every Sunday or may not have their extra funds on hand. NOTE: Due to the Pandemic's effect on gatherings/social distances, we "currently" cannot rely on personal Sunday collections, although we hope & trust to return to this approach sometime soon.

-WHAT IS CURRENTLY THE BEST WAY TO CONTRIBUTE? You may mail your check payable to FPUU indicating in the check's memo section "Share the Offering". Another option is to log into website www.UUKennebunk.org and select "Plate Offering", which allow you to contribute using your credit card.

-WHERE DOES MY PERSONAL FPUU PLEDGE FIT IN?

Your Pledge will continue to be allocated only toward those budgeted programs and expenses which FPUU membership previously approved.

HOW DO I RECOMMEND A NON-PROFIT AS A RECIPIENT? Please contact Crystal (uukennebunkoffice@gmail.com) to receive an application. All Completed applications should be sent to back to Crystal. FMI, please contact Eva Downs; she will be happy to work with you and answer any questions.
