

Virtual Blueberry Fair - 2020

COVID-19 pandemic says no Blueberry and Craft Fair, but we are not daunted by a virus. We will have a tiny wee bit of one anyway. You can experience a tiny wee bit of the UU Annual Blueberry Fair in two ways:

- You can come to a blueberry buckle party on the lawn of the UU Church and enjoy a widely spaced, yummy treat on August 1 from 10:00 to 12:00 for $3, plus a chance on 4 blueberry paintings by Nancy Beers, AND first dibs on our Blueberry Fair Store Sale.
- You can go to our STORE and order Blueberry Goodies and/or give a donation. AND buy a raffle ticket for a lovely hand painted blueberry dresser by artist Karen Carey.

The Sale and Donation Opportunity is open from August 1 to August 15.

- Pick-up day for the purchases is Saturday, August 29 at the UU Church from 10:00 to 2:00, Or
- You can request nearby town personal delivery, Or
- US mail (except for the blueberry homemade pies and dresser).

You can give a $25 donation and order any one of numerous items for an additional amount, or just give a donation, add on a raffle ticket, or just a donation if you are short of cash. Contact for Questions: Marylyn Wentworth at 207-602-0245 or marylyn.wentworth@tnsk.org

Note: Only 100 people need to give $25 and buy a little something for us to meet our budget in these COVID19 days when we cannot have our usual fund raisers. The First Parish UU Church is more than a spiritual congregation, it is a community landmark and a meeting place for so many people and events. So, pass this good news on to your friends and family, your Facebook or twitter friends and give this beautiful church a boost.
