

Kennebunk, Maine – Savor the flavor of summer at the Annual Blueberry Festival & Craft Fair!

DATE Saturday July 27th, 2019. Grounds open at 9:00 am

LOCATION First Parish Unitarian Universalist Church, 114 Main Street, Kennebunk

Kennebunk's oldest continuous fair, the 43rd Annual Blueberry Festival & Craft Fair, is about enjoying local food, crafts from neighboring artisans, and music by local singer-songwriters. Everyone is welcome, and admission is free.

Many different kinds of food are available, with a focus on blueberry pies, blueberry buckle and muffins served from 9:00 until 3:00. A classic New England style lunch will be served from 11:30 to 2:00 in the parish hall featuring fish chowder, freshly made crab meat rolls and, of course, blueberry pie! Organic hot dogs and vegan options are also available.

At 11:00, join a narrated walk through the 1700s Hope Cemetery Old Church Yard. Visit the graves and hear the fascinating and sometimes tragic tales of Kennebunk residents from past centuries.

The Finest Kind Lite Trio performs classic country, blues, and honky tonk from 1:00 to 3:00.

Throughout the day, check out our historic building—which housed community meetings in the 1700s—and educational exhibits for all ages. Our neighbors also welcome visitors: Friends of Hope Cemetery & Woods invite you to stroll 72 acres of trails; the Brick Store Museum offers an Historic Walking Tour of Summer Street (meet in their lobby at noon). Kennebunk Free Library hosts a book sale.

The fair benefits First Parish's on-going educational programs and community outreach.

It is easy to find: just look for the big white church at Routes 1 and 35, right next to the town library.
